County of Monterey

Monterey County is located on the Central Coast of California just south of the San Francisco Bay Area, about 45 miles from San Jose and 106 miles from the City of San Francisco.

The rich Salinas Valley extends through the heart of the Monterey County, making it the third largest agricultural county, with agriculture supplying the majority of jobs in the county.

The County also offers:

- the longest coastline of any California county;
- attracts more than 3 million visitors annually to destinations such as Fisherman's Wharf, the Cannery, and the Monterey Bay Aquarium;
- wine industry that produces upwards of $238M per year and attracts visitors to the wine trail;

- Three regional airports: Monterey Airport, Marina Municipal Airport, and Salinas Airport.
- There's so much more to learn and discover about the County's vibrant and dynamic economy:
